The Alioune Blondin Beye Peacekeeping School of Bamako (EMP-ABB) celebrated the 'International Peace Day on Friday 20 September 2024 in its conference room

The theme chosen by the School this year was 'Building Bridges and Bridging Divides', in line with the United Nations theme of 'Promoting a Culture of Peace'.

The event was chaired by the Minister for Malians Living Abroad and African Integration, Mr Mossa Ag ATTAHER, who was joined by the President of the National Commission for Disarmament, Demobilisation and Reintegration, Brigadier General Faguimba KANSAYE, and the Director General of the Alioune Blondin BEYE Peacekeeping School, Colonel Souleymane SANGARE.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE DAY

Context :

The International Day of Peace (IDP) was instituted by the United Nations on 21 September 1981 in accordance with General Assembly resolution A/RES/36/67. This commemoration aims to reinforce the ideals of peace by observing 24 hours of non-violence and ceasefire throughout the world.

Global objective :

Promoting a culture of peace through intergenerational dialogue.

Specific objectives :

- Encouraging intergenerational dialogue to improve understanding and collaboration on peace and security issues ;
- Demonstrate the unity and shared commitment of all development players to peace.

Results obtained :

By exploring current challenges and issuing strategic recommendations, this event helped to establish a framework for intergenerational dialogue to ensure harmonious cohabitation between the different strata of society.

Intergenerational debate: “Building bridges and bridging gaps”

Moderated by Professor Abdoul SOGODOGO, discussions focused on the following points :

- Sub-theme 1: “History and memory as lessons for peace and peacekeeping operations” by Professor Abdramane TOURE ;
- Sub-theme 2: “Using digital media to educate and raise awareness about peace and peacekeeping operations” by Ms Arkia TOURE ;
- Sub-theme 3: “Peace and security through inclusive education” by Dr Aminata Dramane TRAORÉ ;
- Sub-theme 4: “The Role of Peacekeeping Centres in Promoting Peace in Africa” by Colonel Aliou BAGAYOKO.

27th Edition : « INTERNATIONAL TREATY LAW AND PRACTICE »

On Thursday 26 September 2024, the Alioune Blondin-BEYE Peacekeeping School, through its Sahel-Saharan Analysis and Research Centre (CARESS), held the 27th edition of its reading club in the CARESS documentation room.

The book highlighted for this 27th edition was entitled “International Treaty Law and Practice ” by Mr El-Abibalaye DIAKITE, Doctor of Sociology, Foreign Affairs Adviser and Head of the International Agreements Section at the Legal Affairs Directorate of Mali's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation.

His book deals with a subject whose understanding is indispensable to the exercise of the professions of diplomacy and international cooperation. As well as shedding light on practice and lifting the veil on the essential concepts of treaty law, it has the merit of filling a major gap in the field.

After a detailed presentation of the book by the author, the question-and-answer session enabled participants to contribute to the discussions and gain an in-depth understanding of the issue.

The Reading Club brought together members of CARESS and members of the Club made up of researchers, doctoral students and auditors from CARESS masters courses, who enriched the debates with their contributions.
